

Dining Information

PRELUDE 2025

- Breakfast is included each morning at the Royal Garden Hotel.
- Friday: Welcome dinner and drinks at The Met Lounge, followed by The Devil Wears Prada.
- Saturday: Late Afternoon tea before the London Philharmonic Orchestra performance.
- Sunday: Farewell dinner at Mosimann's after a day of inspiring events.
- Dietary requests from your pre-departure survey have been accommodated.
- Restaurant recommendations are available for early arrivals or trip extensions.

---

Recommendations

In Kensington, enjoy a variety of dining experiences. Stein's Berlin serves German cuisine, Ognisko offers Polish classics, and Publiq specializes in modern European dishes. For global flavors, try Zuaya London, Alexandrie Restaurant, or Da Mario for Italian charm.

Near St. Paul's, Madison features rooftop dining, Goodman City is ideal for steaks, and Ivy Asia serves vibrant fusion dishes. Brigadiers offers Indian-inspired meals, while Coq d'Argent, The Trading House, and Le Relais de Venise l'Entrecôte provide additional diverse options.

Central London offers bold Italian concepts like Circolo Popolare, Ave Mario, and Jacuzzi. Clos Maggiore is one of the city's most romantic spots, while Brasserie Zedel, The Wolseley, and The Delaunay focus on classic European fare. Inamo combines Asian cuisine with high-tech dining.

For traditional pub fare, visit The Lamb Tavern, The Old Bank of England, The Swan at the Globe, or The Clachan. For quick and budget-friendly options, try Franco Manca, Pizza Pilgrims, Burger & Lobster, Flatiron, Aubaine, The Ivy, or Preto.

Unique dining includes the Cheese Bar in Spitalfields, the theatrical Sarastro, and the artistic Sketch. Dans Le Noir! offers dining in complete darkness, while Inca London delivers a vibrant Peruvian culinary experience.